

Title

Career achievements of junior swimmers.

Goal

The goal of this thesis is to follow a development of swimmers' performance.

The research focuses on the age in which swimmers reach the highest level of performance and it is trying to discover whether their career continues till their adulthood. The study group consisted of swimmers who were members of Czech Junior Representation from 1999 to 2004. The results of each swimmer in the study group were followed from the beginning of their career till the end.

Method

Data for this research were obtained from statistical materials and publications.

In addition various computer programs were utilized to process the collected information in order to achieve the research goal of this thesis.

Results (Conclusion)

The data used for the study show that junior swimmers reach the peak of their performance in their adolescent years.

Key Words

Competitive swimming, swimmer's career, sport performance, performance, Czech junior representation.